Lecture: “British Isles to Canada to Michigan”

Jessica Trotter

Britain to Canada to Michigan was a popular migration pattern and this talk explores resources available to researchers studying families who travelled these routes.

Our Speaker

Jessica Trotter holds a Master of Science in Information, Archives and Records Management Specialization from the University of Michigan. She has presented for the past six years at the Archives of Michigan Abrams Foundation Family History Seminar, for the Genealogy Center at Allen County Public Library, and the NGS Conference in 2018 and 2020. Her genealogy research areas include Midwest, African American, British Isles, Canadian, and Early American research. Jessica maintains a genealogy research related blog called Genie Road Trip at <http://genieroadtrip.com>.

Class: “Productive Online Searches” 3:15 pm

Mary Henderson

Maximize the number and quality of online search results through the use of Boolean operators and careful crafting of the search parameters.

Our Instructor
