Lecture: “Scotch-Irish Research”

Derek Blount

Learn about the Scotch-Irish: who they were, where they came from and where they can be found. Find out what records are available after a fire in 1922 destroyed 700 years of records. Learn how to find online records and records still not digitized.

Derek Blount is a professional genealogist with his own business “Lost Branches”. He has worked for 32 years on his family genealogy, traveling America, Canada and the United Kingdom gathering records and visiting cemeteries and churches. Derek was born in England and specializes in research in the United Kingdom and Commonwealth nations.

Class: “Genealogy Webinars and Podcasts” 3:15 pm

Omer Jean Winborn and Sharon Brevoort, members of GSWC

Webinars and podcasts are one of the most convenient and least expensive ways to augment your genealogy education. Discover over twenty quality sources for webinars and podcasts, including those covering African Americans and American Indians. Find out how and where to locate them.
