Lecture: “Immigration and Naturalization Records”

Jeff Mason

Are you wondering what foreign lands your ancestors came from? How did they get here and why did they come? Learn which records to look for and where to find them to answer these questions. Gain the tools necessary to launch you on your quest.

Our Speaker

Jeff Mason has been an active genealogist for 45 years, doing extensive research in several midwest and eastern states as well as in the UK. Jeff is a contributor to the Find-A-Grave project, as well as the administrator and co-founder of the Nason Family DNA project, and a frequent speaker at genealogical and historical societies.

Class: “Using the Quantity of Shared DNA to Answer Genealogical Questions” 3:15 pm

Dr. James Sims

Learn how the quantity of autosomal DNA shared can help you understand your matches and can help answer certain genealogical questions.

Dr. James Sims is a genetic genealogist and frequent speaker at the Oakland County Genealogical Society DNA Special Interest Group.
