“40+ Sources for Finding Maiden Names”

Katherine R. Willson

Learn 40+ possible sources for locating a female ancestor's maiden name and search tips on locating these sources.

Our Speaker: Katherine Willson is an engaging & dynamic genealogy lecturer at local, regional, and national conferences. She has taught all levels of genealogy classes in Michigan since 2001. She is the author of The Genealogist's Guide to Grand Rapids, Michigan and is a professional researcher for private clients.

“Irish Pioneers of Washtenaw County” 3:15

Abigail Eynon

Hear a few tales about the Irish pioneers who formed the very early critical mass of Catholics in the “North fields” of Washtenaw County. Better understand their push out of Ireland, the pull into what becomes Michigan and the lives they lived.

Our Speaker: Abigail Eynon, a retired attorney, is a past President of the Irish Genealogical Society of Michigan. She is a member of the Irish Genealogical Research Society and the GSWC.
