“What can a Land Abstract Tell You? ”

Lori Piercefield Fox

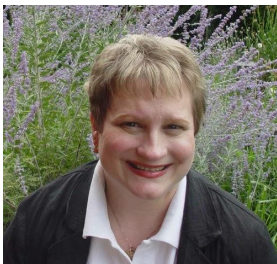

Before title insurance, land abstracts were used to prove ownership of land. Learn how you can use this document to further your genealogical research.

Our Speaker: Lori Piercefield Fox is President of Ionia County Genealogical Society. She is obsessed with genealogy and a lifelong resident of Ionia County Michigan.

“Navigating Naturalization Records” 3:15 PM

Lisa Alzo

Due to changing laws and an evolving process over time, locating the appropriate official paperwork used by our ancestors for naturalization can often be a challenging task for family historians. Learn how to navigate naturalization records and access the information they contain about your ancestors.

Our Instructor: Lisa A. Alzo, M.F.A., is a freelance writer, instructor, and internationally recognized lecturer, specializing in Eastern European research and writing your family history. She is the author of eleven books and hundreds of magazine articles.
