“Regional Archives of Michigan” by Tom Koselka

Learn more about the records available to you for your research during this overview of regional archives in Michigan.

Our Speaker: Tom is the President of the Detroit Society for Genealogical Research and Past-President of the Michigan Genealogical Council, and the Dearborn Genealogical Society. He serves as a board member, mentor, advisor, and member of several Michigan genealogical societies. Tom is also a member of the Association of Professional Genealogists, Ontario Ancestors, and the National Genealogical Society.

“Leaving a Legacy: Methods of Leaving Memories for the Next Generation” by Lori Piercefield Fox Approximately 3:15

What kind of a legacy are you leaving for the next generation? Is it books and folders and binders? Lots of unmarked pictures and recipes? Learn how to leave a lasting legacy which is documented and interesting of which our next generation will not deposit in a dumpster as soon as we are gone.

Our Speaker: Lori is president of Ionia County Genealogical Society. She has been doing genealogy for over 50 years. Lori is the 5th generation of her family to live in Ionia County.
