“Exploring the Features of FamilySearch.org”

by Katherine Willson

Learn about utilizing the many resources at the largest free genealogical website in the world with a focus on its records, family trees, Learning Center, and wikis.

Our Speaker: Katherine R. Willson is an engaging & dynamic genealogy lecturer at local, regional, and national conferences; an educator teaching genealogy classes in Michigan since 2001; the author of “The Genealogist’s Guide to Grand Rapids, Michigan”; and a professional researcher for private clients..

“Family Migration - A Case Study”

by Sue Blaisdell 3:00 pm

Learn one family’s story of western migration from the east coast of Massachusetts during colonial times to Michigan at the beginning of its statehood - the difficulties they overcame and the opportunities they sought.

Our Speaker: Sue got into genealogy at the prodding of her dying mother who was concerned that all her own genealogy work would be lost. Sue has fulfilled her mother’s wish and has picked her own projects and is hoping that she can find a final resting place for them, too.
